

Dinner Tonight To Follow Boyd-Dunlop Rehearsal

MR. and Mrs. G. B. Boyd will entertain with a dinner in the Missouri Room of the Colonial Hotel tonight, following the rehearsal of the wedding party of their daughter, Betty, and James Stewart Dunlop, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Dunlop, 1035 Linwood Terrace.

The Boyd-Dunlop wedding will be an event of tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First and Calvary Presbyterian Church.

A low mound of bronze and gold chrysanthemums will center the table tonight, with bronze satin streamers extending from the flowers to form a long runner at either side.

Those attending will include: Mrs. John P. Dunlop, Mrs. R. C. Boyd, Mrs. Joe Dulin, Miss Virginia Craig, Miss Frances Lea, Miss Barbara Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vieniage, John P. Dunlop, Jr., Robert Vieniage and Bill Turk.

★ ★ ★

Miss McDaniel Feted

Mrs. A. C. O'Day, Melville Road, will hostess a personal shower tonight in honor of Miss Sugar McDaniel, bride-elect of Melton Hancock.

After dessert is served, the evening will be spent informally by the following: Mesdames Georgia McLaughlin, John K. Hancock, Ralph Brooks, Jane Smith, Ralph L. Patterson, R. L. Pennington, Jack Howe, R. E. Lee McDaniel, K. A. Schmitt, Ray Aanes and Marion Noble.

Misses Margaret McLaughlin, Peggy Hancock and Pat Patter-