Born July 16, 1930, in Marshall, Lucile was the daughter of the late Joseph Allen James and Minnie Lee Bell James. She was a 1948 graduate of Mercy Academy. On June 13, 1948, she married Dean Banks who survives of the home. She lived in Marshall most of her life and was the secretary for Banks Moving & Storage for many years. She was a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and sang in the Community Choir for several years.

She also loved to travel with her husband spending several winters first in Florida then in Texas. However, she was most passionate when it came to caring for her husband and family. She enjoyed nothing more than to have the entire family at her house for meals, especially during the holidays. She was the ultimate wife, homemaker, mother, and grandmother.

In addition to her husband, Dean, she is survived by three children, Roger Banks and wife, Lesa, Michael Banks and wife, Jo, and Brenda Davis and husband, Jimmie, all of Marshall; six grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Lucile was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Zella Stephens, Beulah Smith and Pearl Thayer; and one brother, Harlis James.
